SRI S. SWAYAMPRAKASAM: Usually, Prohibition Committee meetings are held at the district headquarters. If the meetings are held in other places, it will be possible for the members of the committee to address public meetings and educate the people in the cause of prohibition, after the committee meetings are over. Therefore will the Government issue instructions for the holding of the Prohibition Committee meetings in such places?

THE HON. SRI B. PARAMESWARAN: I will examine that suggestion.
